Montana's Regional Service Areas Development Project Update

WM - CSPD – Western Montana – Comprehensive System of Personnel Development
MNCEsr – Montana North Central Educational Services Region
SMART – Southern Montana Alliance for Resources and Training

Example of Professional Development Training for a Statewide Initiative Using Regional Service Areas

For the past two years, two regional service areas – WM-CSPD and MNCEsr have provided Indian Education for All (IEFA) Level I professional development. (On the reverse side of this page is a brief description of the indentified levels of professional development for IEFA.) The newest regional service area – SMART – has provided the Level I professional development for less than one year. The involvement of these regional service areas has made it possible for the Office of Public Instruction to make substantial progress in reaching the many thousands of educators around the state in need of Indian Education for All professional development in a timely, efficient and cost-effective manner. A brief summary of the training as of August - 2008 for each area is provided below:
